

LUND UNIVERSITY
School of Economics and Management

SASUF Challenge 5 Cape Town, May 18

1

LUSEM; UCT; Unilever institute

SASUF Challenge 5 Event in Cape Town 18 May, 2018

Within challenge five (Urbanization and cities in the 21st Century) of the South Africa Sweden University Forum (SASUF) University of Cape Town, School of Management Studies and Lund University School of Economics and Management arrange a workshop May 18, 2018 in Cape Town.

Urban water consumption: Understanding behaviors and attitudes

Time: May 18, from 10.00 to 13.00 hours with lunch afterwards if interested

Place: University of Cape Town, UCT, Upper Campus, Menzies 14 (6th floor of Menzies).

Preliminary program (all times ca.)

10.00-10.15

- Johan Jansson (LUSEM) and James Lappeman (UCT)

Welcome and short introductions, Introducing SASUF and the seminar

10.15-10.30

- Johan Enqvist (ACDI)

Interdisciplinary ways of studying urban water conservation

10.30-11.00

- Jodie Posen (Wesgro)

Current insights on Cape Town water crisis

11.00-11.30

- Raldo Kruger (Greencape)

Current insights on Cape Town water crisis

11.30-12.00

- Martine Visser (ACDI)

Behavioral economics around water consumption

12.00-13.00

Joint discussion on collaboration projects among interested.

Possible lunch for interested.

Confirmed participants (so far, do not hesitate to invite more)

Claudia Callil
David Priilaid (Maybe)
James Lappeman
Johan Jansson
Lorena Pasquini (?)
Ross Roberts
Ozayer Matthews
Siphiwe Dlamini

Contact for participation/questions:

Johan Jansson, LUSEM: johan.jansson@fek.lu.se

James Lappeman, UCT: jlappeman@uct.ac.za

Web: <https://sasufblog.wordpress.com/>